

pbi press presents.....

Elder Law in Pennsylvania

Finally, Pennsylvania lawyers have a comprehensive resource that provides the information needed to properly represent senior clients. Elder Law in Pennsylvania simplifies complex programs like Medicaid, Medicare, Social Security, and Veterans' Benefits, guiding you through both federal law and the unique aspects of Pennsylvania elder law. Whether you specialize in elder law or estate planning or maintain a general practice, this book will give you the help you need to answer the critical planning questions raised by your older clients.

Chapter Topics

- Ethical Considerations in Representing the Elderly
- Planning for Incapacity — Financial Issues
- Planning for Incapacity — Health-care Issues
- Guardianship
- Social Security and Supplemental Security Income
- Medicare
- Veterans' Benefits
- An Introduction to Medicaid
- Medical Assistance — Eligibility and Transfers & Marriage Issues
- Home- and Community-based Services
- Medical Assistance — Applications and Appeals & Estate Recovery
- Elder Abuse and Protective Services

Plus

- Case and Subject Matter Indexes
- Dozens of useful forms, in text and on CD-ROM, ready to be adapted to your practice

Buy this book to learn:

- How to calculate transfer penalties under new Act 42
- How to protect the maximum for the community spouse
- How to convert available assets to exempt status
- The new rules on using annuities
- Dozens of planning strategies to protect your client's assets

Forms include:

- Irrevocable trust
- Elective share will
- Medicaid friendly power of attorney

“There is no other work that brings all areas of Pennsylvania elder law together in one text. Written by the father of elder law in Pennsylvania, this is the book all practitioners must have in their libraries. It's a significant contribution to the field of elder law.”

~Robert Clofine, Esq.
Former Chair of the Elder Law Section of the Pennsylvania Bar Association

Order Today!

Elder Law in PA (3923) — $199.00

8.5 x 11, three-ring binder, 700+ pages includes CD-ROM with sample forms

Published November 2005

Include $6.00 shipping & 6% Pa. sales tax on all book orders.

This book is included in PBI's automatic update service. PBI will publish new editions and supplements as appropriate to keep the publication current. Everyone who purchases the book will receive each update at a reduced price with an invoice and an option to return it with no further obligation.

NOTE: If you do not want to be enrolled in this service, simply indicate so when you speak to the customer service department.

The Author

Jeffrey A. Marshall, JD, CELA, is the managing attorney of the elder law firm of Marshall & Associates, with offices in Williamsport, Jersey Shore, and Wilkes-Barre. He has been certified as an Elder Law Attorney (CELA) by the National Elder Law Foundation. His private practice focuses on elder law, including estate planning, long-term care planning, and estate administration. Mr. Marshall has written and lectured extensively on elder law issues for both state and national audiences. He is author and publisher of a widely-circulated newsletter, the Elder Care Law Alert, and writes a regular column on elder law for the Williamsport Sun-Gazette. He has authored materials and served on the faculty of numerous Pennsylvania Bar Institute courses and has been course planner for PBI presentations on "Representing an Individual Entering a Nursing Home," "Advanced Nursing Home Planning," and "Medicaid Estate Recovery." A native of Lock Haven, Pennsylvania, Mr. Marshall received his undergraduate degree in 1967 from Wesleyan University and his law degree from Stanford University in 1972. He is past chair of the Pennsylvania Bar Association's Elder Law Committee (now a Section) and has been a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys since 1988.

Call 1-800-932-4637 • www.pbi.org • Fax 717-796-2348