

50 THINGS TO DECLUTTER RIGHT NOW

Maybe you're inspired to carry on or just want to switch things up a bit? In that case, have a go at decluttering the items on this list!

- Old newspapers and magazines
- Old VHS video tapes and media
- Books you've never read or won't re-read
- Old mobile phones and accessories
- Old keys you can't identify
- Any furniture or ornaments you don't like
- Instruction manuals no longer useful
- Excess plastic bags
- Anything on your calendar that you don't want to do
- Receipts you no longer need
- Bank statements you no longer need
- Pens that don't work anymore
- Junk mail
- Expired store cards, credit cards, vouchers
- Jewellery that you never wear
- Earrings that don't have a pair
- Old glasses that you don't use
- Odd socks and socks with holes
- Stained clothing or that's damaged beyond repair
- Clothes that you don't like or don't fit
- Excess clothes hangers
- Junk in the bottom of your handbag
- Toiletries and old makeup that you never use/has seen better days
- Old towels or bedding that have holes, are worn out or you don't need
- Food that is past its use by date or you don't like
- Any food that's gone stale
- Storage containers without lids
- Gadgets and appliances you never use
- Extra dishes, cutlery, glasses that you never use or are damaged
- Broken toys
- Toys with parts or pieces missing
- Clothes and shoes that your kids have outgrown
- Kids' artwork you don't want to keep or have taken a photo of
- Toys that your kids have grown out of
- Baby stuff (if you're past having babies)
- Half-finished craft projects
- Unused desktop icons on your pc
- Fuzzy photos or duplicate photos that you don't want to keep
- Apps on your phone that you don't use
- Junk email in your inbox
- Unsubscribe from newsletters that are no longer of interest
- Broken tools in your garage or shed
- Dead plants
- Expired paint/chemicals in your shed
- Broken garden furniture
- Outdoor toys that aren't played with
- Broken Christmas/festive decorations
- Stuff that's been put in the garage to get rid of another time
- Stuff that's been put in the attic to sort through another time
- Unused cookbooks